Transportation Companies Protest Everything Says J. Harrington

County Attorney W. F. Seaver and Assistant James Harrington asked Chamber of Commerce at Hotel rules Friday noon on behalf of the loard of county commissioners to not only use its own influence but also to secure the co-operation of a milar bodies in other counties tra-versed by the Frisco railroad in demanding the dismissal of the tax in-function suit against the state board of equalization.

Their plea was answered by the pointment of a committee from the Chamber of Commerce to investigate the status of this suit and sturn a recommendation at the ext meeting whether the Chamber of Commerce shall take an active
